

Elevens uni-login:
Skolens navn:
Tilsynsførendes underskrift:

FP9

9.-klasseprøven

ENGELSK

Hæfte 2

Maj 2016

Du har 2 timer til at løse denne del af prøven.

Prøven består af 2 dele:

- opgaver i sprog og sprogbrug
- opgave i fri skriftlig fremstilling

Hjælpemidler tilladt.

Language use

Write the verbs in the simple past tense.

Example

Last year I (lose) lost my job. It was my own fault really. I (enter) _____
0. 1.
the manager's office, expecting a pay rise. My manager handed me a new contract. When I read the conditions, it (upset) _____ me so much that I (tear) _____
2. 3.
it up – in front of him! I got up, (leave) _____ the room and (slam) _____
4. 5.
the door behind me.

Complete the verbs in the present perfect tense.

Example

Bob James has (have) had a fantastic life and he has just (write) _____
0. 6.
a book about it. Among other things, he has (fight) _____ forest fires in Australia, 7.
and has (ride) _____ alone on a camel across the Gobi desert. He has also 8.
(plan) _____ and executed campaigns to help poor children in India, to name just a 9.
few of the things he has (do) _____. Recommended holiday reading.
10.

Choose the right word.

There are more words than you will need. No word may be used more than once.

difference, differences, differ, differs, differing, ~~different~~, differently

Example

This year, we're going to try a different kind of holiday. We're going on a camping holiday in Iceland.

11. The two films _____ quite a lot; one is sci-fi action and the other Hobbit-like fantasy.
12. Although we solve problems _____, we usually end up with the same solution.
13. Certainly, we have many _____, but we are still good friends.

breath, breaths, breathe, breathes, breathed, breathing, breathless, breathlessly

14. Take a deep _____ or two before you start on this exercise.
15. He ran into the hall, absolutely exhausted, and said _____, 'The Orcs are coming!'
16. When a bear is hibernating for the winter, it _____ very slowly.

Underline the correct word.

Example

The gift was beautifully (rapped / robbed / wrapped / rapt) and tied with a lovely ribbon.

17. They don't want to go to Spain this year; they've been (their / theirs / there / they're) four times already.
18. After running ten kilometres, he had a blister on his (heel, hail, he'll, heal).
19. If you are going to the match, can I come (toe, to, two, too)?
20. We had trouble deciding what to (where, ware, we're, wear) to the fancy dress party.

Cross out the other ten mistakes and correct them.

Paul Royle, of Perth, Australia, died recently at the age of 101. ~~His~~ ^{He} was one of the last survivors of what is know as The Great Escape, a daring escape from a German prisoner of war camp during World War II. Soldiers imprison in the camp secretly dug a tunnel there was 100 metres long. It was nine metres under the ground and very narrow. Paul helped bye hiding soil removed from the tunnel in his prison cloths. He scattered the soil around the prison garden so that guards would not became suspicious. During the escape, Paul was one of 70 men who crawled threw the tunnel to freedom. They then split up and ran of in pairs to hide in forests and around farms. Unfortunately, German soldiers caught Paul after just two days of liberty and took him back to the prison camp.

A film about the dramatically escape, starring Steve McQueen, was a box office sensational and is now considered a film classic.

YOUNG PERSON OF THE YEAR

You don't have to be an adult to do something incredible. In some countries, like Britain and Australia, young people who have done amazing things are honoured in Young Person of the Year Awards. The winners have all been chosen for their exceptional achievements and the hard work they have put into reaching their goals, but their stories are very different. Here are some facts about two of the award winners.

Young Australian of the Year 2011 Jessica Watson, Australia

Background:

born 1993,
was shy, dyslexic,
childhood – spent years on the family houseboat,
inspired by sailing story at the age of 12.

Nominated because:

at 16, intense training and preparation,
youngest to sail alone around the world in her boat,
'Ella's Pink Lady',

7-month voyage,

daily blog followed by millions,
experienced bad weather and boat almost capsized three
times,

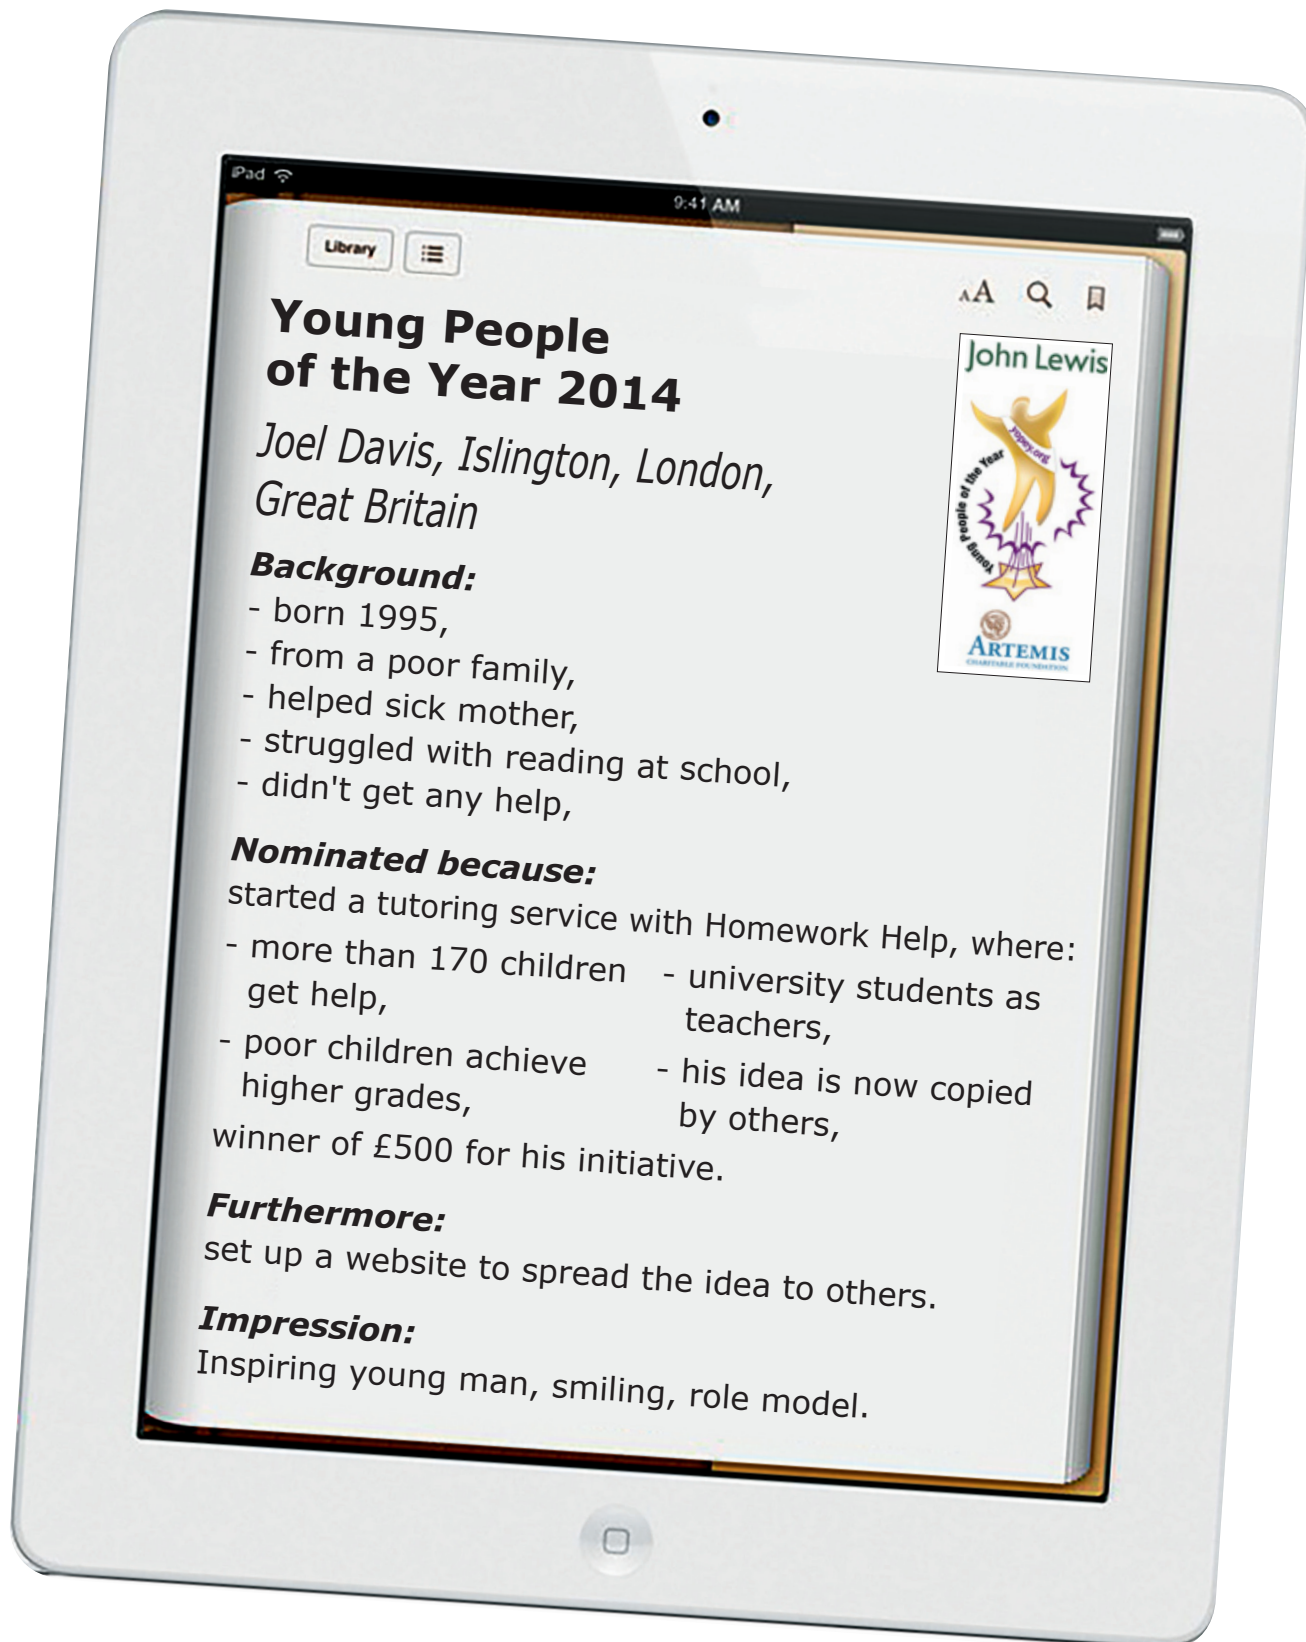

sailed home to heroine's welcome.

Furthermore:

wrote best seller book about journey 'True Spirit', consultant in film 'True Spirit' about her round the world trip.

Impression:

inspiring, courage and determination, role model.

Imagine that you have interviewed ONE of these award winners.

Write an article (350-450 words) for a youth magazine. Use the information above and your own imagination.

Include

- something about her/his background
- why she/he was nominated
- something interesting you learned about the person
- your impression of the person you interviewed.

MINISTERIET FOR BØRN, UNDERVISNING
OG LIGESTILLING
STYRELSEN FOR
UNDERVISNING OG KVALITET

Zk49#67L

FP-MAJ 16-06 B

