would

Most people ~~would~~ agree that it is important to have a good diet. We need to eat good healthy food or we are putting ourselves at risk. If we eat too much junk food on a regular basis, we are unlikely to be very fit. More people than ever before are taking advise about nutritious seriously, and that is a very positive trend. It is importantly that people act responsibly about there own health, but we also need to be aware of the environmental when we make decisions about food. Our planet is warming up, and part of the problem is our food production. It can be said, for example, that meat production create more of the greenhouse gas, carbon dioxide, than growing beans or nuts, which are also good sauces of protein. It is also good to bye foods which are grown near to where you live, so less power is using on transport.
